

ROOSEVELT STANDS FOR AMATEURS

He Likes Good Clean Sport for Its Own Sake and Says So.

TALKS TO YACHTMEN.

Says Trophy Bears His Name Because He Enthusiastically Supports All Kinds of Sports.

Bay, N. Y., Sept. 14.—President Roosevelt placed himself on record today as an enthusiastic supporter of amateur sports. He also took occasion to weld a new link of friendship between the United States and Germany.

He did this by making the official presentation of the Roosevelt cup to the American Yacht club, the trophy which was won by the yacht Yim of that club during the recent international races off Marblehead, Mass., in which several German boats competed unsuccessfully.

The presentation was made on board the president's flagship, the Mayflower, anchored in the entrance to Oyster Bay. After the presentation, which was witnessed by a dozen representatives of the yachting fraternity, including several members of the German crews and members of the cabinet, an elaborate luncheon was served in the diningrooms of the little cruiser.

In presenting the trophy the president said that he wished to give his most hearty endorsement to amateur sports of all kinds. "Gentlemen," he remarked, "I would not be participating in the function and the trophy would not bear his name."

GERMANS GREAT SPORTS.

The president next commended the sportsmanship of the Germans. They had, he said, demonstrated that they could withstand the supreme test of sportsmanship; they could lose gracefully. While the president congratulated the winning club most heartily, he said there was a note of regret in his endorsement. Referring to the one race won by a German yacht.

Speaking more seriously, the president said there was a side to the race just run, and that to the nations taking place, which meant far more to the German and American nations than the winning of the cup. That in the sportsmanship of the nations was being developed, a fraternal feeling which was most desirable for the welfare of both countries.

The cup was presented at the conclusion of the speech to Commodore Trenchard L. Park, owner of the Yim.

TOAST TO EMPEROR WILLIAM.

When luncheon was served President Roosevelt proposed a toast to the emperor of Germany. This was responded to later by Capt. Hildebrand, one of the German representatives. In a toast to the president of the United States. In proposing the toast the German captain took occasion to voice the cordial feeling which he said his fellow yachtmen felt for American amateur sportsmen. He said it was a pleasure to lose, if that was to be their fate, to the emperor of Germany. He commented on the fact that every possible advantage had been given the strangers in these waters. The toast concluded with three rousing cheers for the president.

After the luncheon Capt. Wettsmann of the German Yacht club delivered to the president a message from the emperor. Prince Henry of Prussia. These messages were not made public, and Capt. Wettsmann said the messages the president returned were regarded as equally as confidential, although the emperor was most enthusiastic in his endorsement of President Roosevelt.

"He is indeed a great man," he commented. "Both the emperor and the president have many traits in common, similarity, and they should and must meet."

STATE LEAGUE IS DEAD.

Magnates Quietly Put It to Sleep Last Night in Conference.

The Utah State league died the death last night, in the quietest of ways. The league, which had been organized by the magnates of the state, was quietly put to sleep in a conference held last night at the state fair grounds here today.

The third heat of the consolation race furnished the keener interest. Ann Direct and Lord Quex being together for a quarter of a mile. Ann Direct had a slight margin in the three-quarters, where Lord Quex spoke to the crowd and he beatifully hunched entering the stretch, and there was a furious drive to the wire. Ann Direct was not quite to the pace, and Imperial Alton won with Kenneth Mac second and Flexo third.

Nickel Gratian won the first heat of this race, but in the second heat he was finished last. His driver, Putnam, attributed his work to sickness, and although one of the eligibles for the fourth heat, he drew the longest, this sacrificing third money, $30, to the association. Results:

Half-Sick

When your nerves are weak, when you are easily tired, when you feel all run down, then is the time you need a good strong tonic—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your doctor will tell you why it has such power over weak nerves, why it makes the blood rich, and why it gives courage and strength. Ask him if it is not just the medicine you need.
